12/29/69

Dear Mr. Williams,

Hasty thanks for your letter of the 22nd, which didn't reach me until today. We've been snowed in. I've read the clippings (one I did not have and the others were better stories than the papers & get carried) and hope to get the the St. George tonight or in the a.m. Heavy mail when there are six days at one shot!

I met St. George in the Washington office of Der Spiegel last summer. He said he was going to look me up but hasn't. I am not certain of his connections, but I think he was on the exile side when the CIA cut them off. As I recall it, he does have an accent.

Matter of fact, the Agency had more than one office in N.O. I do not know how many, but I believe more than two. Garrison talked about this but never went into it. They also had a Double-Chek office there.

Again, many thanks.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg